

How to Subscribe to a Single Topic in a Forum

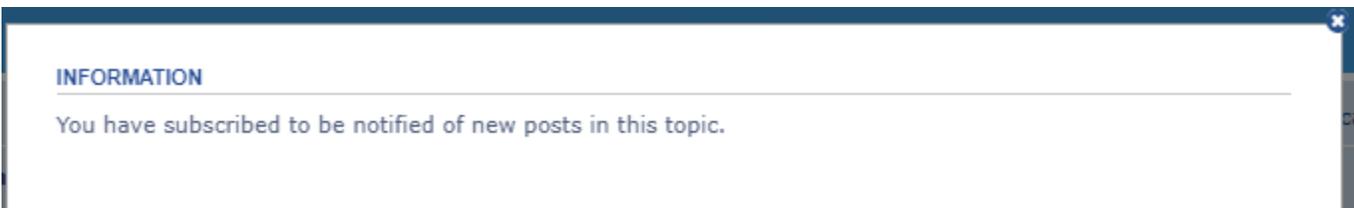

In this example, we'll subscribe to a single topic in the General and Technical Information, Questions and Responses forum. I assume that you've read the document How to Subscribe to a Forum.

Go to the topic to which you'd like to subscribe and click the dropdown arrow next to the wrench:

The screenshot shows the forum interface for the "Born Free Leap'n Lions RV Club Info & Discussion Forum". The breadcrumb trail is "Club Website < Board index < General Discussion Forum < General and Technical Information, Questions, and Responses". The topic is "Topic to illustrate forum subscription" by user "admoftat". A dropdown menu is open, showing options: "Subscribe topic" (checked), "Bookmark topic", "Email topic", and "Print view". The "Subscribe topic" option is highlighted with a red box. The user profile for "admoftat" is visible on the right, showing 26 posts and a join date of Sun Nov 08, 2015 8:50 pm.

Again, it looks like you're already subscribed to this topic, but you're not. Click on the Subscribe topic link. The following pop-up will appear:

The screenshot shows a blue-bordered pop-up box with the heading "INFORMATION". The text inside reads: "You have subscribed to be notified of new posts in this topic." There is a small 'X' icon in the upper right corner of the pop-up.

Click on the  in the upper right corner of the pop-up to dismiss it.

There is no content here. I'm just creating a topic to generate an email for a subscribed user.
